

May 5, 2005

--FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE--

CJM COMMUNITIES ANNOUNCES “BELLA VISTA ISLES” IN INDIAN RIVER COUNTY

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY, FL - On April 28, 2005 the Indian River County Planning Board approved “Bella Vista Isles,” a luxury townhome community to be developed by CJM Communities on central Florida’s Treasure Coast.

Located on the southeast corner of 26th Street and 66th Avenue, in close proximity to the Indian River Mall, Bella Vista Isles will capture the very best of Florida living. Bella Vista Isles will be a private gated community, with breathtaking lake views, lush landscaping and amenities including a community pool and pedestrian walkways throughout. Featuring both one and two story floorplans, each with three bedrooms and two or two and a half baths, with prices starting in the low $200,000’s, Bella Vista Isles is expected to become one of the areas most desirable communities.

Bella Vista Isles will be situated conveniently in Indian River County near the city of Vero Beach. Indian River County is known for it’s beautiful beaches, parks, museums, theaters, restaurants, shopping, and is home to Holman Stadium, the 6,500-seat Spring Training home of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Additional information on Bella Vista Isles including community information, a map and directions to the community, artist renderings, and floor plans, will be available at www.CJMcommunities.com.

With an exceptional reputation for commitment to quality and customer service, CJM Communities has been building new homes since 1998. CJM Communities includes a top quality construction team, first class architectural designs, and superior customer service, with new home projects in Broward, Palm Beach, and Indian River Counties.

###

Media & Sales Inquiries contact Chris Stotz at (954) 572-0400.